Name:
i tuillo.

Homework 1: Introduction Due Jan 27

Due Jan 27
1.	What sciences courses have you had prior to this course? What is your overall impression of science courses?
2.	How many credits are you taking this semester? How many hours a week are you working?
3.	What makes a course interesting to you? Think of a course you thought was really interesting and describe the features of that course.
4.	What are your goals for this course this semester?
5.	Write one commitment that you will make with regards to this course this semester. Do this by completing the following prompt:
	This semester in Che 103 I will

Name:	·
6.	What do you think will be the most challenging aspect of this course for you this semester?
7.	Look through the syllabus and skim through the book. Look at the different topics we are discussing this semester. Identify one topic that you think looks especially interesting.
8.	Read through the syllabus. Pay attention to the due dates and exam dates. Do you have any questions about the policies or procedures in this class?
9.	What question(s) related to chemistry would you like to answer this semester?
10	. Is there anything about yourself you would like me to be aware of?